 2. Must ordinarily reside within 110kms between their principle place of residence and Melbourne's CBD
(guide for checking time & distance please use Google maps).
- We are looking for "Billys" and "Michaels" based in Sydney and Melbourne as per the travel and kilometre requirements above. "Billy" and "Michael" auditions will be held in Sydney and Melbourne only. If your child is from outside these cities and would like to audition you are welcome to submit an application for consideration, however there is no guarantee that an audition may be granted in these audition dates. If successful in gaining an audition you will need to make your own travel arrangements to audition in Sydney or Melbourne for Round 1.
- Depending on each child's skills, they may be invited to undertake skills-based training classes between audition rounds. Such training will be organised or approved by the production.
- During the audition process, your child may be required to be assessed by a physiotherapist and speech pathologist appointed by the production.
- Please refer to character descriptions for height requirements. The maximum height will be 150cm. Children will be measured on the day of their audition, the height submitted on the application needs to be accurate.
- Please note that the children's roles in Billy Elliot the Musical have very particular physical requirements including, but not limited to height and vocal requirements. Should a child cast in the show mature beyond the physical parameters of the role, they may no longer be able to remain in the production.
- Due to production requirements, the child cast will be onstage with performers using tobacco-free smoking cigarette props throughout the show.
- This production includes tobacco-free smoking, strong language, strobe lighting, pyrotechnics, theatrical smoke and loud music.

- The production asks that if you are approached by the media to undertake publicity about your child's participation in the audition, or any publicity relating to Billy Elliot the Musical, please do not engage with the media without prior consent from the production.
- We are aware that some individuals / organisations may offer workshops to prepare auditionees for Billy Elliot the Musical auditions. Please be aware that these workshops are not officially associated with the production, therefore we cannot guarantee auditions will be granted to all workshop participants. Each applicant will be assessed independently.
- Please note that auditionees may be photographed and recorded as part of their participation in the audition process for casting purposes.
- Auditionees may be asked to be recorded, either inside or outside the audition room, with such recording to possibly be used for promotional content of the production process including, but not limited to; news stories, programming for broadcast and social media. Such recording will be voluntary without compensation.
- Children cast in the production will need to be available to go on tour to perform in the proposed Australian capital cities (outside their home city). Children cast in the production will need to have a parent / legal guardian accompanying them for the entire duration of the tour. The parent / legal guardian will be responsible for each drop off and pick up from work calls and schooling, along with supervision at all times when the child is not at work.
- All children will be required to take a period of absence from their current school for the duration of the child's engagement on the production. All schooling and tutoring will be provided by The McDonald College Sydney located in North Strathfield. The appointed teacher / tutor will liaise with each child's individual school regarding educational requirements and report back at the conclusion of the tour. The appointed teacher / tutor will tour with the production.
Enrolment, school fees and uniform costs will be covered by the production, but parents will be responsible for transport to and from school / tutoring sessions, personal electronic device requirements and stationary / books supplies.
- If offered a role, a child may not be able to be in the show if their education authority do not approve the child to be absent from school for periods as required. This approval will need to be sought by the parent with the support of the production prior to the child being contracted for the show. A proposed outline of rehearsal and performance requirements will be provided, so schools understand the time requirements of the child. However, please note production schedules will vary and flexibility is mandatory. When children are required to travel away from their home base; travel allowances, accommodation and wage provisions will be provided per the terms of the Billy Elliot Performer's Collective Agreement.

- We trust that you will support and accommodate your child's requirements if cast in the production of Billy Elliot the Musical. We believe working on a world-class production such as Billy Elliot the Musical is an excellent opportunity to provide a positive educational and life experience for a child. Should the child be chosen to move through the audition process, the production will provide ongoing information to keep agents (if applicable), parents and the child informed about next steps of the audition process and the requirements of the production. As involvement in the production will require school co-operation, family co-operation and a considerable time commitment from the parents and the child, it is imperative that a child only remains in the process with the full support and commitment of their family, school and agent (if applicable).
- Billy Australia 2019 – 2020 Pty Limited is a committed equal opportunities employer with responsible child safeguarding practices in place.
- Parents will be asked to read and understand a Billy Elliot the Musical workplace code of conduct and other various workplace policies.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN

- Billy Elliot the Musical works in partnership with the relevant child authorities in each state who monitor child employment to ensure that statutory code of practices are followed, along with promotion of best practice.
- All employees on the production acknowledge that they will be working with children in the production of Billy Elliot the Musical. The production has developed a Working with Children Policy and it is a requirement of Billy Elliot the Musical that all production personnel undertake a police check annually and or a Working with Children Check as part of the production's due diligence in working with children.
- Compliance with the Working with Children Policy will be mandatory at all times.
